Bio:

Arrvinraj (b. 1996, Malaysia) is a multidisciplinary artist based between Malaysia and Singapore. His practice spans performance art, video, painting, sculpture, and installation, exploring themes of self-identity and human intuition, often delving into social dynamics and psychology.

He has exhibited and performed internationally. In 2019, he contributed a sculpture to the Sanyi Woodcarving Museum as part of the Taiwan International Youth Wood Sculpture Symposium. In 2023, he presented a one-hour durational performance at the Bopiliao Historical Block in Taiwan. In 2024, his work was featured in Fragments of an Unknown Space, a group exhibition at the Singapore International Photography Festival. That same year, he was invited to Studio Plesungan and performed at Undisclosed Territory #14, a performance art festival in Surakarta, Indonesia.

Most recently, Arrvin participated in Sama-Sama, a group exhibition at Whitestone Gallery Singapore. His practice continues to shift, stretch, and bend like a body in motion, constantly testing the edges of space, time, and what it means to be present.
